Among the many Thanksgiving gatherings, may be mentioned several which were reported too late for last week's news. The Ed. Lehman family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burkett and daughter of Rittman, Frank Burkett, Sr., and Ralph Baum and wife of Creston, Frank Burkett, Jr., and family of Akron and Miss Leona Mohler of Wadsworth, all of whom are relatives of Mrs. Lehman.

J. W. Weltmer in company with R. S. Trowbridge, will leave Thursday evening for Maryland, where Mr. Weltmer hopes to find relief for a physical disorder that has troubled him for years. Ever since he moved up from Tennessee Mr. Weltmer has been a victim of asthma and he anticipates thus by a change to the sunny climes of the faraway Southland a real and lasting benefit to his health. Mr. Trowbridge is making the trip with the idea of settling there permanently; if he likes the country, as will also Mr. Weltmer, who will move his family there later should the climate prove as beneficial as he hopes to find it.

Otherwise she was uninjured. Mr. Kannable returned Monday evening to take up his work again his 7th and 8th grades.

The C. E. Cowling family have had more than their share of sickness lately. Mrs. Cowling suffered intense pain last week caused from a healing in her head; at the same time the oldest boy Harold, has been very sick with double pneumonia. Mrs. Cowling is much better now and the doctor has Harold's fever checked, so that it is hoped that he too will get along all right. Miss Mary Whonsetter of Canaan is the nurse in charge.

And now comes the professional "window-jimmer"—a female of the species, too, handsome and innocent-looking, yet she was seen by five people who gazed in open-mouthed wonder while she tried first one door, then another and finally jimmied open a window in one of the east road homes. With your true burglar's cleverness she climbed in the window, rummaged around, then out again and on her way, all in broad daylight, too. "Our Emma," however, looks at the matter from a different angle and declares that any housewife, if she caught the scent of burning cake, which an absent-minded neighbor had forgotten to remove from the oven before going to town, had a perfect right to break into a house and rescue the cake. But hereafter, Polly Schleman may look after her own cakes.

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 4

PAUL IN MELITA AND ROME.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 28:1-11.

GOLDEN TEXT—I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth—Rom. 1:15, 16.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Mark 16:15; Rom. 1:8-17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The End of Paul's Journey.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The End of a Long Journey.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Living in Rome.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Ministry in Rome.

1. The Shipwrecked Crew on Melita (vv. 1-10).

Through the storm they lost their bearings, and when they were safe and land they learned that the island was called Melita.

1. The hospitable reception of the natives (v. 2). They built a fire and made them as comfortable as possible from the cold and the rain.

2. Paul gathering sticks for a fire (v. 3). This is a fine picture of the world's greatest preacher and missionary not above picking up sticks for a fire. The ability and disposition to serve naturally in whatever way is the evidence of capacity for great commissions.

3. Paul bitten by a venomous serpent (v. 3). With the sticks that Paul gathered there was a serpent. Perhaps it had already curled itself up for its winter sleep, but when the warmth of the fire aroused it it darted at Paul and fixed its fangs upon his hand. The natives expected to see him fall down dead, yet he shook it off, nothing harmed. At first the natives concluded that he was an escaped murderer and that this was retributive justice being meted out to him. When they saw that he was unharmed they concluded that he was a god.

4. Paul heals Publius' father (vv. 7-10). These people are now getting some return for their kindness. When this man of note was healed others came also and were healed. To this they responded in appreciation by loading them down with necessary supplies.

II. Paul Arrives at Rome (vv. 11-16).

When Paul landed at Rome Christ's charge to the disciples was fulfilled. After three months' stay at Melita, Paul departs for Rome in the ship Alexandria, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. At Syracuse they were delayed three days, perhaps for favorable winds. At Puteoli he found brethren, at whose request he tarried seven days. At Appollonia and at the Three Taverns brethren from Rome met him. From Puteoli the news went before Paul's coming, and so interested were the brethren that they came more than forty miles to meet him. This greatly encouraged him, for which he gave God thanks. No one, perhaps, ever enjoyed more close fellowship with God, and yet no man ever enjoyed more and derived more benefit from human fellowship than he. His readiness to preach the gospel at Rome, which he had expressed in the Epistle to the Romans, written from Corinth about three years before, was now realized. He was treated with great leniency at Rome, for he was allowed to hire a house there and live alone except that the soldier that remained his guard was constantly with him. Being chained to a soldier was rather irksome, but yet it gave him a chance to preach to the soldiers which he could not have had any other way. He rejoiced in whatever circumstances, just so the gospel was preached.

III. Paul's Ministry in Rome (vv. 17-31).

1. His conference with the leading Jews (vv. 17-22). He did not, as usual, wait for the Sabbath day to speak to the Jews. He only allowed one day for rest. His object was to have a fair understanding with them. When they came he endeavored to conciliate them. He told them that, though he came as a prisoner, he was not a criminal. Though his own countrymen had so sought his life, he did not come with an accusation against them. The result of this interview was that the Jews cautiously took neutral ground, but expressed a desire to hear what Paul could say in defense of a sect which was everywhere spoken against. The fact that this sect was spoken against is no evidence that it was wrong. Many times a thing may be wrong in men's minds, because their judgments are biased. If a thing is right in the sight of God it matters not what men think about it.

2. Paul expounding the kingdom of God and persuading concerning Jesus (vv. 23-31). He pointed out a real kingdom—the Messianic Kingdom with Jesus as the King.

Consecration.

If you want to live in this world, doing the duty of life, knowing the blessings of it, doing your work heartily, and yet not absorbed by it, remember that the one power whereby you can so act is, that all shall be consecrated to Christ.—Alexander MacLaren.

Now, my God, let I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.—1 Chronicles 6:40.
